

Implementation Rules for Mandatory English Course

Grading and Placement of National Taipei University of Nursing and Health Sciences

1. The implementation rules were established according to the Regulations for Mandatory English Course Grading and Placement of the National Taipei University of Nursing and Health Sciences (NTUNHS).
2. For the unified teaching materials and the common exam for the unified teaching materials after grading and placement, the English Teaching Section of the General Education Center shall examine the applicability of the teaching materials by the end of the second semester of each school year.
3. Teachers providing lectures for mandatory English courses in the four-year technical program shall provide the academic achievements of students with top three rankings (including students having the same ranking) in classes during the semester to the English Teaching Section of the General Education Center to review the qualification of upgrading students; after completing the review, list of upgrading students shall be submitted to the General Education Center for an announcement within two weeks after the final exam.
4. The “Application Form for Upgrading of Mandatory English Course” shall be published on the page of the General Education Center, NTUNHS. Students who intend to submit applications shall download the form from the page of the General Education Center online and fill in relevant data in detail. After completion, they shall send the form to the e-mail address (edoca41gec@ntunhs.edu.tw) for the office of the General Education Center to complete the application procedures. Applicants shall submit their applications during winter and summer vacations. Students shall complete the application procedures latest by noon on Friday two weeks before the school opening of the following semester. No overdue application will be accepted.
5. NTUNHS’s Table for English Proficiency Grading of Mandatory English Course shall be published on the pages of the General Education Center and the General Education Center for internal and external parties to view.
6. The implementation rules are implemented after being approved by the Academic Affairs Meeting; the same shall apply upon any amendments.
